

Australian Society for Technical Communication Incorporated (ASTC) 2020 Annual General Meeting (AGM) committee nominations

ASTC invites you to nominate candidates for the 2020–2021 ASTC committee.

You can nominate for:

- President
- Vice President
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- General Committee.

How to nominate

Complete the nomination form on the next page and return your signed form to info@astc.org.au before COB on Tuesday 13th October.

How to vote

ASTC members will vote for their preferred nominees at the AGM on Wednesday 14th October 2020, 8:30pm AEDT. The AGM will be held via the Zoom meeting software, enabling members to attend, no matter where they are located in Australia. More information will be provided to members via email.

Conditions

Nominees must be current financial members of the ASTC at the time of the AGM.

Nominees must be proposed and seconded and the nominee must agree to stand. Nominations can be seconded by a member proposed by the current committee.

Get your nomination in early to give voters the best chance to consider the candidates. Details of each nomination will be published on the AGM page of our website as they are received. Nominations may be received at the AGM, however, these will not allow voting members time to consider late nomination.

ASTC committee candidate nomination form

Nominee's name Must be a financial ASTC member during the AGM.
Nominee's Signature Electronic signature acceptable
Nominated for which position? President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer or General Committee.
Proposer Can be the same as the nominee.
Proposer's signature Electronic signature acceptable
Secunder Can be appointed by current committee
Secunder's signature Electronic signature acceptable
Provide some information about yourself and why you would be a good choice for the ASTC committee.	